

INDEMNITY

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

- 1 All shooters and spectators acknowledge that the discharging of firearms in a controlled environment, more specifically that of the South African Steel Challenge and notwithstanding any controls in place is a potentially hazardous activity.
- 2 Shooters and spectators bear the responsibility at all times of taking all such steps as may be reasonably necessary to ensure their own safety.
- 3 This means that all written or oral commands must be immediately complied with if given by a range officer or any other authorised person.
- 4 The organizers, their employees, agents or assignees shall not be responsible for any loss or harm that may result from any person's attendance at an event held under the auspices of the South African Steel Challenge.
- 5 The organizers, their employees, agents or assignees cannot be held responsible for the acts or omissions of any person who participates in sport shooting and related activities held under the auspices of the South African Steel Challenge or the act or omissions of anyone present at activities held under the auspice of the South African Steel Challenge.
- 6 It is the responsibility of all persons participating in sport shooting events held under the auspices of the South African Steel Challenge as well as any spectators and other persons who have accompanied such sport shooters to be vigilant at all times and to act in a manner that does not compromise their safety or that of any one around them.
- 7 By signing this indemnity you indemnify and hold harmless the organizers, their employees, agents or assignees for any loss irrespective of how such loss arisen and hereby waive your right to institute any claim against the organizers, their employees, agents or assignees consequent upon such loss.
